

Workforce Development

Interested in gaining skills for a job in a science or tech company?

Introducing BULB: Building an Understanding of Lab Basics

This NO COST two-week virtual training in the STEM field will allow you to gain skills sought after by local science and tech employers.

Program runs November 9 - 20th

2:45 - 5:45 p.m.

APPLY TODAY

APPLICATION DEADLINE: Oct. 30th @ 5 pm

WHY APPLY

- Gain skills desired by science and tech employers and make your career future proof
- Earn a stipend while learning 21st Century workforce skills
- Increase professional connections with science and tech companies
- Acquire skills and access to family-sustaining career opportunities

PARTICIPANTS RECEIVE

- A stipend
- A laptop upon completion
- A lab kit from eCLOSE for hands-on training
- STEM professional career mentor
- Connections to employers looking for talent in STEM fields
- Access to the LabXchange platform beyond the program

REQUIREMENTS

- Philadelphia resident
- High school diploma or GED
- An interest in science, technology, engineering and/or math (STEM) field
- 18 years of age or older
- Access to a computer and internet connection
- Basic computer skills including knowledge of Microsoft Word, Excel and PowerPoint

CURRICULUM DESIGNED BY

SUPPORTED BY The Lenfest Foundation and in partnership with University City District and eCLOSE Institute

QUESTIONS?

Contact Phil Brooks, Director, STEM Workforce Partnerships

215-966-6076

pbrooks@sciencecenter.org

www.sciencecenter.org